Levy Baptist Church wishes to express their Christian love and sympathy to Melanie Inmon in the loss of her father, Alfred Inmon.

Sociologists tell us loneliness is at an epidemic proportion around the world. Even as connected as our technology allows us to be, loneliness is a deeply troubling social problem. So much so that Japan and the UK even have ministers of loneliness charged with addressing the challenge.

I think loneliness and disconnection are a part of the rise of hostility and anger in our society. The meanest and most unhappy people I know are also the most isolated. It is a societal problem, and also a spiritual one.

In the beginning, the Bible said it was not good for humans to be alone. We are made for community. We are made for connection. We really do need friends.

There's no better place to form eternal friendships than in the Body of Christ. I hope to see you on Sunday as we gather as a family of friends. Who can you invite to come with you?

Food, Fellowship, and Magic

The annual Deacon BBQ Dinner, which will take place on Friday, February 28th, promises a fun-filled evening. Levy's own Timothy Walker will present a spectacular magic show that will amaze attendees.

On Saturday morning, March 15th, North Pulaski Baptist Association will be hosting Bill Newton from the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, who will be speaking about Transgenderism and the Church. This is open to anyone: pastors, parents, ministry leaders — anyone who wants an understanding of the terminology and how to have Gospel conversations with those — who may even be in their families — struggling with their identity and sexuality.

The cost to attend is $5, and that will cover lunch.

Thank you dear church family for all the cards, flowers, phone calls, visits, help and especially the prayers that were felt and answered every step of this journey I am on! Please continue to pray that I can be back with this fellowship soon to worship and be with you all! I love you, Mary Harris

Did you enjoy the Charles Graham concert on Sunday, February 16th? If you'd like to know more about Charles Graham's life, make your way to the Levy Baptist library and check out his book, "No Back Doors" and read about the experiences that have shaped him—from his childhood working on the cotton and bean fields to his years as a singer performing before kings and presidents.

Congratulations to Jeanne Cox on the birth of a great-grandson — Callan Capps, who came into the world at 2:22 a.m. on February 13th! Callan is the son of Charlotte Leigh Capps & Jackson Capps

New In The Library

Twin sisters, Elma and Thelma Hochstetler do everything together. They live together, they run a general store in Indiana together, and they are growing old together—neither one marrying young like their peers. But that could change if one of them marries.
