From the Pastor's Heart
"That They May Be Counted Among Us"

Friend, Sunday morning worship is more than a routine—it's a gathering of the saints, and every soul matters. That's why I want to encourage you to sign the pew pad each week. It may seem like a small thing, but it helps us in a big way—not just in keeping an accurate attendance record, but in helping us reach those who are new in our midst.

So don't just sign it and set it down—pass it along your pew. Help visitors feel noticed and welcomed. And once it's filled out, drop it in the offering plate as it comes by. It's a simple act that says, "I'm here, I matter, and I care about who's sitting beside me."

Let's be faithful in the little things, because God uses them to do great things.
In Christ,

Sunday, June 8th is Pentecost Sunday—come celebrate with us!
While there's no official dress code, many in our church family have embraced a beautiful tradition: wearing red, the color of Pentecost, symbolizing the fire of the Holy Spirit. Over the years, the sanctuary filled with God's people clothed in vibrant hues of red, orange, and yellow has become a radiant and joyful sight. If red isn't in your wardrobe, feel free to wear any light, bright, or fiery colors that echo the warmth and wonder of this sacred day. More important than what we wear outwardly, may we each be adorned inwardly by the Spirit—with joy, boldness, and the beauty of holiness. Let's come ready to worship in spirit and in truth—clothed in celebration!

Murry's DINNER PLAYHOUSE

Levy Baptist Church is going to Murry's Dinner Playhouse – June 6!
Join us for an evening of good food, great company, and award-winning theatre as we enjoy a performance of Driving Miss Daisy, a Pulitzer Prize-winning play that offers a humorous and heartwarming look at the unlikely friendship between an aging Southern lady and her kindhearted chauffeur.
