A Family Portrait

"Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular."

—1 Corinthians 12:27

One of the great joys of being part of a church family is knowing one another—not just in name, but in face, in fellowship, and in faith. That's why we're putting together a new church directory. And friend, I want to encourage you to be a part of it.

This isn't just about pictures—this is about people. When the storms of life hit, you won't turn to a building; you'll turn to a body. The church directory becomes a prayer list, a ministry guide, a family album for the family of God. It helps us put names with faces, and more importantly, hearts with needs.

So smile for the camera! It may seem like a small thing, but it's one more way you say, "I belong here. This is my church family."

To schedule your photo session, simply contact Diana Harper or call the church office. Let's make sure every member of our family is pictured in this precious keepsake.

Until the nets are full,
Pastor Steven

St. Steven

The first day of vacation Bible school

One summer afternoon, a grandfather picked up his 4-year-old grandson at church. "Well, Jason, how did you like your first day of vacation Bible school?"

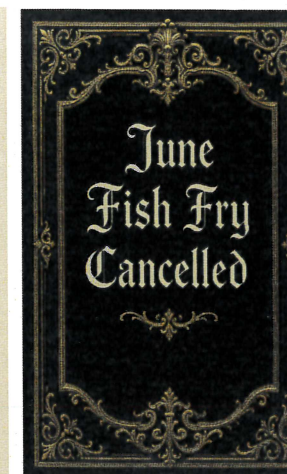

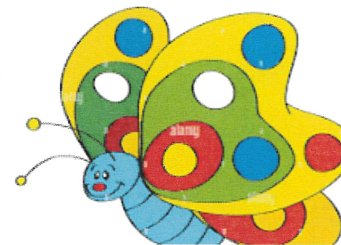

"It was great!" the boy replied. "We heard some stories and drew some pictures. Then we went out to play, and when we came back in God had juice and cookies waiting for us!"

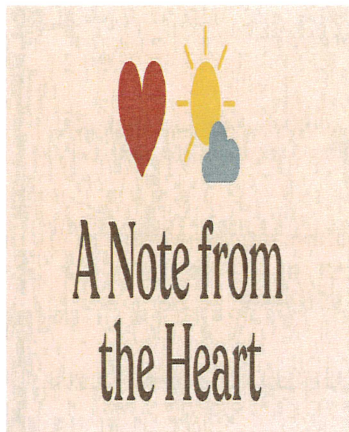

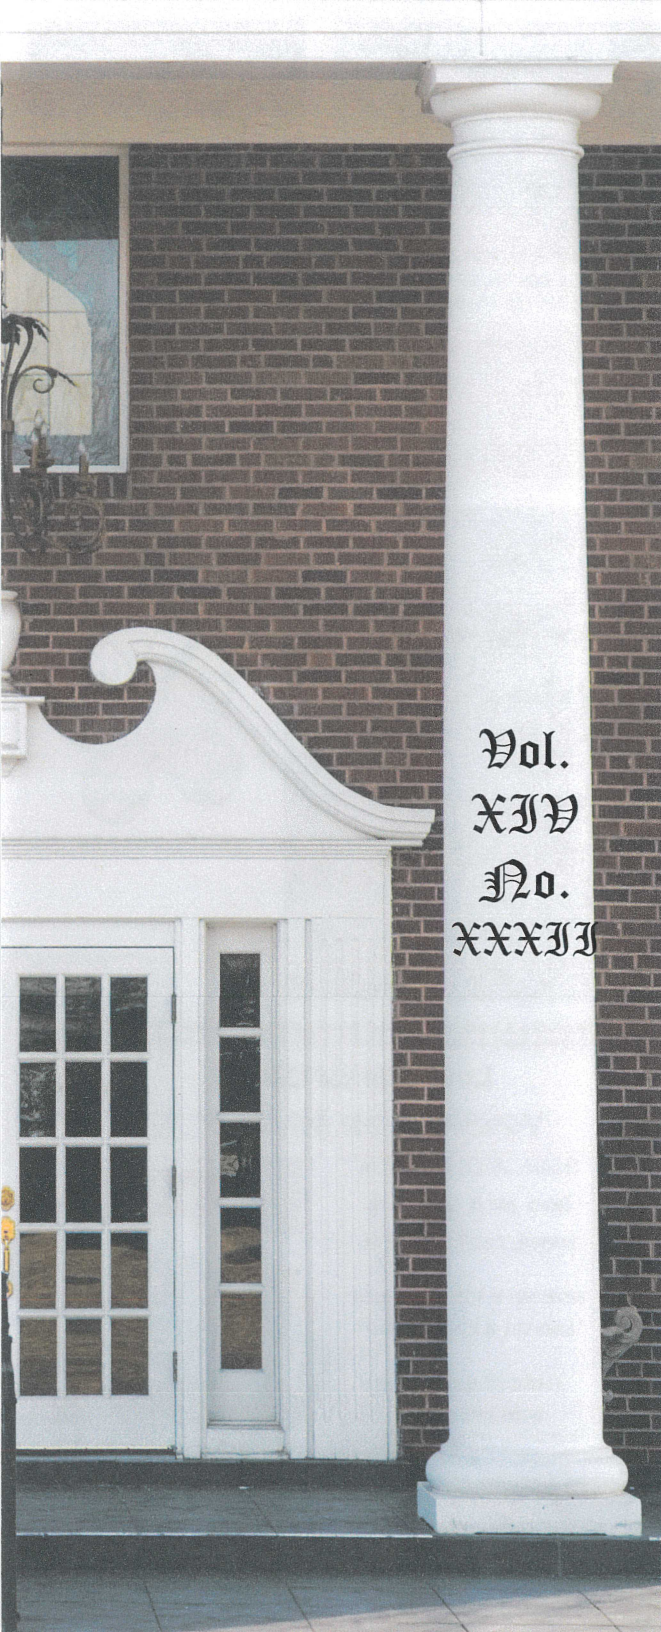

Handling grief

When a Southern Christian woman became a widow, several people asked what she was going to do. She always answered by saying, "I'm going to do Proverbs 3:5-6 and Philippians 4:4-7."

Both passages provide wonderful doses of strength and encouragement. (If you aren't familiar with the verses, look them up.) When we completely trust in God for guidance and peace, he not only sees us through difficult times but allows us to rejoice rather than worry.

A Note from the Heart

Summer is a beautiful season—a time for rest, travel, and making memories with loved ones. While many of us enjoy a change of pace, the mission of our church continues each and every week. Ministry doesn't take a vacation—and neither does God's faithfulness.

If you find yourself away this summer, we simply ask you to remember your church family in your prayers and in your giving. Your steady support makes it possible for us to keep loving, serving, and reaching others even in these quieter months.

Thank you for being a vital part of what God is doing here. We are grateful for your faithfulness!
