Seeing the Scriptures

“They were bringing little children to Him so that He would touch them.” — Gospel of Mark 10:13

Children at the Negba settlement. This photograph, captured by the American Colony on February 12, 1946, depicts life in one of the southernmost Jewish communities in what was then known as the land of Palestine.

“Let the little children come to Me; do not hinder them.” — Gospel of Mark 10:14

Jewish children walking through the Jewish Quarter of the Old City of Jerusalem on their way home from school, offering a glimpse into daily life within this historic and sacred setting.

“And He took them in His arms and blessed them, laying His hands on them.” — Gospel of Mark 10:16

At the Western Wall in Jerusalem, Jewish families gather during times of blessing. In this scene, a priestly descendant places his hands upon his sons, continuing the ancient tradition of pronouncing a blessing upon the next generation.

Invitation

The people of Levy Baptist Church join Pastor Tiner in welcoming you. We pray that God’s Holy Spirit will speak to you and lead you to His will for you life.

If you do not have a church home in Central Arkansas, you may feel God’s leadership to make this church your church. If so, during the invitation, we invite you to present yourself for membership in one of the following ways:

....If you have never acknowledged Christ as your Savior, you should pray to receive Christ as your personal Savior and then request believer’s baptism.

....If you have received Christ as your Savior but have never been baptized by immersion, we invite you to join our fellowship through the testimony of believer’s baptism.

....If you are a born-again Christian, baptized by immersion and a member of a church of like faith, you may come upon such statement.

....If you are a born-again Christian, baptized by immersion and a member of another Baptist church, you may present yourself upon transfer of membership.
