Seeing the Scriptures

*“But who is there of you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep...” —
Luke 17:7*

A man plowing a field with a horse in eastern Samaria. Jesus drew upon the familiar routines of everyday agricultural life to illustrate the faithful service expected of His disciples.

“Come right away and recline to eat.” — Luke 17:7

Peasants sharing a simple meal outdoors. This American Colony photograph, taken between 1934 and 1939, reflects the humble setting of an ordinary meal in the Holy Land and illustrates the everyday life Jesus described in His teaching.

“Prepare dinner for me.” — Luke 17:8

A peasant woman preparing a meal over a fire fueled by thorn bushes. This American Colony photograph, taken between 1900 and 1920, illustrates the kind of humble domestic setting Jesus had in mind as He described a servant completing every assigned task before resting.

Invitation

The people of Levy Baptist Church join Pastor Tiner in welcoming you. We pray that God’s Holy Spirit will speak to you and lead you to His will for you life.

....If you have received Christ as your Savior but have never been baptized by immersion, we invite you to join our fellowship through the testimony of believer’s baptism.

If you do not have a church home in Central Arkansas, you may feel God’s leadership to make this church your church. If so, during the invitation, we invite you to present yourself for membership in one of the following ways:

....If you are a born-again Christian, baptized by immersion and a member of a church of like faith, you may come upon such statement.

....If you have never acknowledged Christ as your Savior, you should pray to receive Christ as your personal Savior and then request believer’s baptism.

....If you are a born-again Christian, baptized by immersion and a member of another Baptist church, you may present yourself upon transfer of membership.
