Seeing the Scriptures

“He makes His sun rise on the evil and the good.” – Matthew 5:45

Sunrise over the Nile River at Luxor, the site of ancient Thebes. Day after day, for nearly two thousand years since Jesus spoke these words, the sun has continued to rise upon both the evil and the good—a daily reminder of the goodness and common grace of God.

“And seeing the crowds, He went up onto the mountain.” — Matthew 5:1

The traditional Mount of Beatitudes as seen from the Sea of Galilee. Located along the northern shore of the lake, this area has long been associated with the setting of Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount, where He taught His disciples the words recorded in Matthew 5–7.

“He . . . sends rain on the just and the unjust.” — Matthew 5:45

Rain and a brilliant rainbow stretching across the Jezreel Valley, viewed from Mughraqa on Mount Carmel. The scene beautifully illustrates Jesus’ reminder that God sends the blessing of rain upon both the just and the unjust, calling His children to reflect that same gracious love toward others.

Invitation

The people of Levy Baptist Church join Pastor Tiner in welcoming you. We pray that God’s Holy Spirit will speak to you and lead you to His will for your life.

If you do not have a church home in Central Arkansas, you may feel God’s leadership to make this church your church. If so, during the invitation, we invite you to present yourself for membership in one of the following ways:

....If you have never acknowledged Christ as your Savior, you should pray to receive Christ as your personal Savior and then request believer’s baptism.

....If you have received Christ as your Savior but have never been baptized by immersion, we invite you to join our fellowship through the testimony of believer’s baptism.

....If you are a born-again Christian, baptized by immersion and a member of a church of like faith, you may come upon such statement.

....If you are a born-again Christian, baptized by immersion and a member of another Baptist church, you may present yourself upon transfer of membership.
