Seeing the Scriptures

"Do not be afraid of those who kill the body." — Luke 12:4

An ancient Egyptian relief depicting a king slaying an enemy, dating to the Ptolemaic period (304–30 BC). This limestone carving illustrates the power earthly rulers exercised over human life. Yet Jesus reminded His followers that even those who possess the authority to take a life have no power beyond physical death. This artifact was photographed at the Walters Art Museum in Baltimore.

"Fear the One who, after He has killed, has power to cast into Gehenna." — Luke 12:5

An aerial view of Jerusalem and the Hinnom Valley from the north. The Greek word Gehenna, often translated "hell," derives from the Hebrew name for the Valley of Hinnom, located along the western and southern sides of ancient Jerusalem. In Old Testament times, this valley was associated with the horrific practice of child sacrifice to pagan gods (Jeremiah 7:31–32). By the time of Jesus, Gehenna had become associated with divine judgment and fiery punishment. Jesus used this familiar name to emphasize God's ultimate authority over both life and eternity.

"Yea, I say unto you, Fear him." — Luke 12:5 (KJV)

A worshipper bowing in prayer at the Western Wall in Jerusalem. This scene illustrates the reverence and humility with which human beings should approach Almighty God. When Jesus commanded His followers to fear God rather than man, He reminded them that earthly authorities possess only temporary power, while God alone holds ultimate authority over both life and eternity.

Invitation

The people of Levy Baptist Church join Pastor Tiner in welcoming you. We pray that God's Holy Spirit will speak to you and lead you to His will for your life.

If you do not have a church home in Central Arkansas, you may feel God's leadership to make this church your church. If so, during the invitation, we invite you to present yourself for membership in one of the following ways:

....If you have never acknowledged Christ as your Savior, you should pray to receive Christ as your personal Savior and then request believer's baptism.

....If you have received Christ as your Savior but have never been baptized by immersion, we invite you to join our fellowship through the testimony of believer's baptism.

....If you are a born-again Christian, baptized by immersion and a member of a church of like faith, you may come upon such statement.

....If you are a born-again Christian, baptized by immersion and a member of another Baptist church, you may present yourself upon transfer of membership.
