Seeing the Scriptures

"He first found his own brother Simon."
— John 1:41

Terracotta figurines depicting the apostles Andrew (left) and Peter (right), created by Italian sculptor Giuseppe Picano in the 1780s. These figures served as models for larger statues of the two brothers installed in the Church of the Girolamini in Naples, Italy, around 1795. The artwork reminds us of Andrew's eagerness to bring his brother Simon to Jesus, an early example of personal evangelism. The figurines are in the collection of The Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

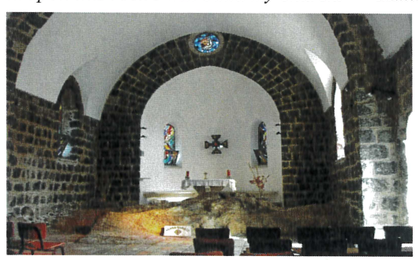

"You are Simon the Son of John. You will be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).
— John 1:42

A statue of the Apostle Peter in the Archbasilica of St. John Lateran in Rome. The basilica features monumental statues of the twelve apostles, commemorating their important roles in the early church. Jesus gave Simon the name Cephas, an Aramaic word meaning "rock," translated into Greek as Petros (Peter). This new name anticipated the significant role Peter would play in the spread of the Gospel and the establishment of the early church.

"Thou are the Christ, the Son of the living God" — Matthew 16:16

"Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church." – Matthew 16:18

The Church of the Primacy of St. Peter at Tabgha, on the northwestern shore of the Sea of Galilee near Capernaum. This chapel commemorates the occasion recorded in John 21 when the risen Christ restored Peter and instructed him to "feed my sheep." Although the site commemorates a different event from Peter's confession in Matthew 16, it serves as a reminder of Peter's calling to serve Christ and shepherd His people. The church is built upon the foundational truth Peter confessed—that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God—rather than upon Peter as a supreme earthly authority.

Invitation

The people of Levy Baptist Church join Pastor Tiner in welcoming you. We pray that God's Holy Spirit will speak to you and lead you to His will for your life.

If you do not have a church home in Central Arkansas, you may feel God's leadership to make this church your church. If so, during the invitation, we invite you to present yourself for membership in one of the following ways:

....If you have never acknowledged Christ as your Savior, you should pray to receive Christ as your personal Savior and then request believer's baptism.

....If you have received Christ as your Savior but have never been baptized by immersion, we invite you to join our fellowship through the testimony of believer's baptism.

....If you are a born-again Christian, baptized by immersion and a member of a church of like faith, you may come upon such statement.

....If you are a born-again Christian, baptized by immersion and a member of another Baptist church, you may present yourself upon transfer of membership.
